

Luma Health Group Ltd

Privacy Policy

Last updated: May 2026. This policy applies to the Luma waitlist only, prior to the full platform launch in September 2026.

This Privacy Policy covers only our waitlist registration. We collect your data solely to send you launch updates and to understand interest in Luma ahead of our September 2026 launch. We do nothing else with your data.

Luma Health Group Ltd ("Luma", "we", "us", "our") is committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and store information when you register your interest in Luma at lumahealthuk.com.

1. Who we are

1.1. Luma Health Group Ltd is the data controller responsible for your personal data.

1.2. Company number: 17242713

1.3. Registered address: _____ Leeds, United Kingdom

1.4. Contact email: lumahealthuk@gmail.com

2. What data we collect

When you register your interest through our waitlist form, we collect the following information:

If you register as a student:

- Your full name
- Your personal email address
- The name of your university
- How you heard about Luma

If you register as a mental health professional:

- Your full name
- Your professional email address
- Your accreditation body (e.g. BACP, UKCP, BPS, COSCA, NCPS)
- How you heard about Luma

We do not collect sensitive personal data, payment information, health information, or any data beyond what is listed above at this stage.

3. How we use your data

We use your data for two purposes only:

3.1 To send you email updates about Luma's progress and to notify you when we launch in September 2026. We will only contact you with information relevant to Luma. You can unsubscribe at any time.

3.2 For internal analytics — to understand how many students and professionals have registered their interest, which universities have the most registrations, which accreditation bodies are represented, and which channels are driving awareness. This helps us prepare for launch. This data is never shared externally and is used only by the Luma founding team.

We do not use your data for advertising, do not sell your data to any third party, and do not share it with anyone outside the Luma founding team.

4. Legal basis for processing

Under UK GDPR, we rely on the following legal bases:

4.1 Consent — you have explicitly ticked the checkbox agreeing to this Privacy Policy and consenting to receive launch updates from Luma. You can withdraw this consent at any time by emailing lumahealthuk@gmail.com or clicking unsubscribe in any email we send you.

4.2 Legitimate interests — for internal analytics to understand demand ahead of launch. This is proportionate and does not override your rights.

5. How we store your data

5.1. Your registration data is stored securely in our waitlist database. Access is restricted to the Luma founding team only.

5.2. We use industry-standard security measures to protect your data from unauthorised access.

5.3. We retain your waitlist data until 12 months after our September 2026 launch, or until you ask us to delete it, whichever comes first.

6. Your rights

Under UK GDPR you have the right to:

- Access the data we hold about you
- Request correction of any inaccurate data
- Request deletion of your data at any time
- Withdraw your consent to receive emails at any time
- Lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) at ico.org.uk

To exercise any of these rights, email us at lumahealthuk@gmail.com. We will respond within 30 days.

7. Cookies

Our website uses minimal cookies for basic analytics only. We use Google Analytics to understand how many people visit our site and where they come from. No personal data from your waitlist registration is linked to cookie data. You can opt out of analytics cookies at any time via the cookie banner on our website.

8. Changes to this policy

If we change how we use your data, we will update this policy and notify you by email before those changes take effect. The date at the top of this document indicates the last update.

9. Contact

For any questions about this policy or how we handle your data, please contact us at lumahealthuk@gmail.com.
